

HISTORY MINOR

The History Minor offers a dynamic blend of traditional historical methods and innovative approaches to study the past. Through the exploration of diverse periods, cultures, and peoples, students develop critical thinking, research, writing, and oral and digital communication skills essential for understanding the complexities of the past.

About this Program

- College: Liberal Arts and Sciences (<http://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/colleges-schools/UGLAS/>)
- Credits: 15 | Completed with minimum grades of C and no optional S/U

Department Information

Undergraduate students in the Department of History come to the program as four-year residential students, PaCE students, and as transfers from Florida state colleges and out-of-state institutions. They join a large, diverse, and active community of faculty, graduate students, and undergraduates. Program highlights include a vibrant Honors Program, engaged student organizations, and numerous opportunities for undergraduate research.
