

LEGAL HISTORY CERTIFICATE

The Legal History certificate considers how law works in the United States and around the world. Students explore histories of the law's influence on society and the ways in which society influences law.

Department Information

Undergraduate students in the Department of History come to the program as four-year residential students, PaCE students, and as transfers from Florida state colleges and out-of-state institutions. They join a large, diverse, and active community of faculty, graduate students, and undergraduates. Program highlights include a vibrant Honors Program, engaged student organizations, and numerous opportunities for undergraduate research.
